1. On 24 December 1953, the Buelow Kaserne in Frankfurt/Oder was occupied almost to capacity by about 2,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery, tank and motor transport insignia. On 21 December, about 60 to 80 troops received instruction on 57-mm AT guns in the barracks area, while about 80 to 100 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia, armed with carbines, submachine guns, and 3 machine guns and carrying practice targets entered the installation from the direction of Rosengarten. On 19 December, about 100 troops received instruction on 10 to 12 mortars, including several 120-mm mortars, in the barracks yard. On 24 December, 2 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in front of the vehicle sheds in the installation.
2. On 24 December, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied almost to capacity by about 1,500 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery and motor transport insignia. At about 10 a.m., 3 trucks towing 3 x 37-mm AA guns left the installation toward Westkreuz, while about 80 troops were lined up in the barracks yard.
3. On 24 December, the Hindenburg Kaserne was occupied almost to capacity by about 800 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank and motor transport insignia and blue-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia. On 22 December, about 60 officers with tank insignia left the installation toward Westkreuz and, at about 12:30 p.m., 3 trucks, each occupied by about 20 troops, towing a 76-mm AT gun entered the installation.
4. At about 6:30 p.m. on 19 December, about 100 officers with tank and artillery insignia and carrying baggage arrived at the Frankfurt/Oder railroad station from the direction of Reppen. The officers were picked up by trucks. At about 3 p.m. on 22 December, about 100 to 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, armed with carbines, carrying rucksacks and coming from the direction of the Eichhorn Kaserne, were entrained toward Fuerstenwalde at the Frankfurt/Oder railroad station.
